With deepest sorrow, we respectfully dedicate the

MILESTONE 1944 to

CARMEN PERRY and WILLIAM CAUSBROOK.

- As classmates we remember two boys who brought fun and laughter to our school-days;
- As citizens of a fighting nation we recall two men who gave their lives in the service of their nation.

MR. WALDRO J. KINDIG

To The Seniors:

Your faculty joins me in congratulating you on the successful completion of your career in Plainfield High School.

Many of you will soon join your classmates who are already members of the armed forces. Those of you who remain on the home front must work with the armed forces in a common effort to end this horrible global conflict.

As you live today in a world at war, and as you plan for a future peace, remember one eternal truth of the past—War brings waste! Peace brings the promise that every boy and girl will have a right to choose and prepare for a career dedicated to the service of his fellowmen.

WALDRO J. KINDIG

After two years in PHS, our Principal, Mr. Waldro J. Kindig, has won the confidence and sincere friendship of the students. Whether we've met him in the hall, in assembly, or in his office, he is always sure to make us feel at ease by his friendly manner.

After graduating from Ohio State University, Mr. Kindig returned to his home town, Napoleon, Ohio, to teach. Later he taught in Delaware, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio; Mt. Holly, New Jersey; and Brockton, Massachusetts. In 1935 he received his master's degree at Columbia University. And now as the principal of Plainfield High, he has added to the school an atmosphere of inspiration, companionship, and respect.

His leadership in starting the Victory Corps, which has enjoyed two successful years, and his participation in the faculty "barber shop" chorus will be remembered by every students. No senior will forget his excellent service at the senior supper and his nimble dancing.

The students of PHS have found in him a devoted and ardent friend, and as we seniors take our positions in world affairs, Mr. Kindig will always be among our inspiring memories of PHS.

MR. F. W. COOK

We're sure you've seen Mr. Henry A. Hubbard, our Vice-Principal, striding down the hall, pensively, quietly, but never too busy to say "hello." We will always hold him in highest esteem and respect, which he has won for himself in his many years as Vice-Principal of PHS.

Every boy (and girl) knows Dean Smith. We have passed him by in the biology room, or we have spoken with him in his office, where he has given us some really good solutions to our problems. Mr. Smith, Dean of Boys, is one person whom we will remember not only for his good advice, but also for his cheery, jovial manner.

Mr. Cook, our Superintendent of Schools, quietly stepped in as the history class was discussing a serious problem. After thinking a few minutes, he asked a student a question. Then the discussion began with opinions flying back and forth. We all agree that Mr. Cook was always a welcome interruption to our classes, and we won't forget his interesting visits.

A soft knock is heard, a pleasant voice answers, "Come in," and we enter the office of Mrs. Beatrice Texier, Dean of Girls. This is the first year we've had the pleasure of receiving Dean Texier's sound advice. Her understanding counsel has helped to quide us through our senior year, and we will always be grateful to her.

DEAN G. A. SMITH

SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS:

Early in the month of September Us met many new things: confusion of getting lost, Entree subscriptions, $1 football tickets, $.25 S.A.T.'s. Soon things started to move in an understandable cycle and Us had our first football game and first Entree.

It was soon time to organize Us. Our newly appointed faculty adviser, Mrs. Buckelew, called an assembly for officer candidates to make campaign speeches. With an overwhelming number of contestants, the elections took as many rounds as a wrestling match. Final results were Frank Fosbre, Dick Mooney, Jean Anderson, and Tom Morris.

April Fool's day was our day. Our only frosh activity was a Swing Band dance with fun, surprises, dancing and a $10 profit.

It was soon after this that the year quickly grew to cramming, exams and prospects of a vacation. But just before the doors were closed, Us elected the officers to head our sophomore class. Tom Morris, Bill Causebrook, Jean Anderson, and George Turk received the honors.

September 1941: Sophomores now, and Us arrived 646 strong, startling the rest of the school with the immediate announcement of a skating party to be held in October. Bob White, Gladys Greenblatt, Annette Rubel, and Sallie Churchill headed the committee which finally helped to secure the unexpected profit of $90.

On the sports field Us were for the first time being noticed. In soccer Jack Moran was named one of the best players; in cross country both Jack Shuster and Lou Rothberg were being considered as the nucleus. Bob Lippman and Nunzio Loggia appeared in occasional football games that year, including East Orange and Bound Brook.

When December 7 came it did not change our way of life much. A few of the upperclass boys left and Bill Causbrook joined the Merchant Marine.

On the baseball diamond Lefty Rinehart began showing the pitching power of his southpaw. On the track, Marvin Davidson, a runner, sprinter, and hurdling jumper, was named as a "future Cunningham."

Sallie Churchill was awarded the state prize for excellence in news writing and an honorary certificate for the Quill and Scroll International Contest for newswriting.

Almost the last event of the year was the awarding of the $5 prize for the winners of the Declamation contest. Carol Bronston took the honors in the girls' division.

Elections popped up everywhere. For our junior class Us chose Bob White, Norman Kantor, June Turner and Joe Corcoran as our leaders. Bob Albers was named Entree chief, Sallie Churchill, managing editor and Joe Corcoran, news editor.

September 1942: Us were upperclassmen. Early we began to fight the precedent of producing a variety show. The result, a three act comedy, "June Mad," was presented November 13 and 14. Phoebe Hardingham and Art deVitalis held the main roles as a love-sick girl and air-crazy boy. Ruth Townsend, Howard Carl, Norman Kantor, Bill Ellis, Bob Albers, Bill Bray, John Gee, Nancy

Weglau, and Betty Wilks completed the cast.

Following her success in the play, Phoebe Hardingham won the school poetry reading contest. Carol Bronston won the school contest in the American Legion Oratorical contest. Both competed in further contests.

In early spring a school-wide election put Bob White in as Student Council president, supported by Dick Mooney as Vicepresident and Betty Wilks as treasurer.

The Victory Corps formation was a school-wide program, but the Council which laid most of the plans had a large junior representation. Bob White, Madge Evans, and Dick Mooney represented the class; Sallie Churchill and Bob Okell represented the press.

About this time the saddest event of the whole class history arrived. The Navy department announced the death of two former classmates, Carmen Perry, Navy, and William (Bill) Causbrook, Merchant Marine.

The finale to our junior year was the election of officers and the appointments to senior usher squads and Senior Honorary Society. Our officers were Jack Shuster, Greg Carty, June Turner, and Joe Corcoran; Bob Okell was named Entree chief; Bob Lundstrom was chosen to head the Senior Honorary.

September 1943: The last fall us would enter PHS as a class. The year began differently somehow. Many of Us had left for the services. Our president, Jack Shuster, had left for the Navy. Greg Carty took over the job, and Marvin Davidson was elected vice-president.

The Milestone editorial board appointments were announced. Carol Bronston was chief; Shirley Blume, Ruth Strom, George Deats, Jane Lum, Jean Wendell, and Dale Carlisle held the other high positions.

Senior supper was another of our class's firsts. In January Us held a supper in the cafeteria (decorated so no one would ever recognize it). The food was prepared by the cafeteria staff, the service was by choice of the master of ceremonies, Bob White. Entertainment included songs by the trio, deVitalis, Hadley, and Carty.

Fulton Hines was elected to replace Joe Corcoran as treasurer when Joe left PHS for Seton Hall Divinity School.

The senior play, "Here Comes Mr. Jordan," a comical and fantastic comedy, was presented on the nights of March 17 and 18. Walt Thielhart starred as Joe Pendleton supported by Bob Lundstrom as Mr. Jordan.

Laying the foundation for the Junior Night Club was one of the largest undertakings in PHS this year. Fighting for it from beginning to end were Betty Arthur, Louise Loizeaux, and Bob White. Senior class representatives included Ann Caulfield and Bill Bray.

And this year comes the end of Us, the class of 1944. This year, as seniors, we leave the auditorium for the last time. This year, as wiser students, we are graduated. From now on, it's You, not Us.

SENIORS IN SERVICE

In the fall of 1940, the class of 1944 entered Plainfield High School, looking forward to school and social activities, sports, new friends, and incidentally to prepare for college or business.

December 7, 1941 was an awakening day for the United States. Here in PHS we observed its pronounced effect on our boys. They took their studies more seriously; sports were no longer just an after-school activity, but were also preparing them for the Army and Navy. Many took courses in pre-flight aeronautics, radio, and other pre-induction courses.

Now we see former students in the uniform of the Army, Navy or Marines, walking through the halls, eating in the cafeteria, and visiting the classes they once attended. They bear a new air about them, one of responsibility and satisfaction that comes from serving their country.

Every month finds more seniors leaving school work to enter the armed services. Some are now seeing action while others are still in training. Two have already made the supreme sacrifice. But wherever they may be, we want them to know that we of Plainfield High School will be right behind them to the finish. Our faith is with them . . . we know they shall be the victors.

SENIOR BOYS IN THE ARMED SERVICES

OLIVIA ADAMS

"Is that so?" inquires Libby, a member of the Basketball Club all four years. She collects pictures and dances in her spare time and is annoyed at pessimists. Her goal is secretarial work.

VIVIAN ALBRECHT

Viv was in the Girls' Leaders Club and the Victory Corps. We have here another secretary. Fond of drawing, skating, and dancing, she dislikes people who think they know more than others when they really don't.

ROBERT ALEXANDER

"Swoose," one of our more recent newcomers, has been a member of the Stamp Club and Model Club. Give this man sports or a good book, and he'll be happy forever.

JUNE ALBERT

Knitting, skating, dancing, and tennis take up most of June's spare time. She was typist for the Entree and hopes to become a private secretary after graduation. Catty people are her pet peeve.

GORDON ALDERMAN

Varsity baseball and International Relations Club were Gordon's interests at PHS. Especially interested in baseball, he's happiest when the Giants are winning because, he explains, "It's a mania with me."

HUBERT WILLIAM AMUNDSEN, JR.

Bill loves to ride the trains. Shooting is his favorite hobby. He claimed membership in Pep Club, and his favorite expression is "For cry eye!" Here's a boy who won't forget vacations.

JEAN M. ANDERSON

Katherine Gibbs' is Jean's goal for h'gher lore, Active in the G.A.A., Orchestra, Hi-Tri, Milestone Circulation Staff, A Cappella and Motet Choirs, she was also class secretary in the freshman and sophomore years.

SHIRLEY ARMAN
Shirl appeal to attend face Institute for merchandising and appreciation, they hobby is collecting information about movie stars. Masic Appreciation, pp and, shild Psychology Clubs, Student Council, and War Bonds and Stamp Committee have had her as a member.

FLAVIA JANE ANDERSON

Dramatics and journalism are Flavia's interests. Being secretary of Senior Honorary Society, working on the Entree and the Usher Squad, and participating in sports were her activities. She was a member of Air Division of Victory Corps and a Civil Air Patrol Cadet.

GENE ANDY

"Andy" hopes to be a secretary or gym teacher. Sports and Girls' Leaders Club were her favorite activities. Correspondence from service men and reading are tops, too, and most annoying to her is a lack of food when she's hungry.

RICHARD H. ARNDTS

With photography as his hobby, Dick is striving to become an engineer or draftsman. He was on the Senior Executive Board, a homeroom chairman, and in the Whittling Club. Oh! how he hated to get up to go to school those Monday mornings!

ALICE FRANCIS AWE

"A-we" believes in action. Her work in Student Council, Drama Society, and Pep Club proves it. "You'll never know," she says, but admits laboratory technology will be her career. She invites hypocritical people to stay away and delights in sailing, swimming, and dancing.

HOWARD C, BANKS, JR.

Howard is another of those people who hated to get up Monday morning to come to school. A member of the Patrol, Glee Club and Boys' Chorus, he'll always remember his appearance in the Senior Variety Show while still a junior.

ELIZABETH MARTIN ARTHUR

"Dutch" hopes to go to Eucknell and then to Tobe-Coburn School of Fashion. Student Council Executive Board, Milestone staff, Hi-Tri, Senior Honory Society, and Cheer Leading were just a few of her activities. She collects everything, including a "P" for sports.

C. BRADFORD BAKER

Brad plans to enter the field of commercial aircraft. He was a member of the Glee Club and on the varsity football team. "Summer at the shore" is his favorite memory.

SANTINE PATRICIA BARBARA

"Sandy" wants to go places and see things! And she wouldn't say, "Are you kidding?" to that. Her graduation will be one very fond memory. Always playing the piano, she is keeping her fingers limber until she becomes a stenographer.

JOYCE BARTLAU

"Red's" hobbies are drawing, ice skating, and dancing. Her activities included hockey, War Bonds and Stamps Committee, Milestone staff, Hi-Tri, and homeroom secretary. Meeting people gives her the most enjoyment in life. She hopes to become a commercial artist or model.

SHIRLEY ANN BEEKMAN

We'll all start school again if Shirley realizes her amb'tion of becoming a kindergarten teacher! We are sure she'd approve if we d dn't crowd or push her around. "Crumb!" she says; she simply won't be shoved!

RITA T. BARON

"Terry" is a music loving gal and out for a good time. She participated in Senior Honorary Society, Archery, and War Bonds and Stamps Committee. She hates conceited people, but, "Hey now! how she liked that 6th period English class.

LUCILLE BAXTER

Lou is strictly an all-around girl, active in Hi-Tri, Tri-Y, Girls' Leaders Club, International Relations Club, Sketch Club, swimming, and tennis. She likes bowling and drawing, and homework annoys her most.

HANNAH F. BERGER

Hannah will be among those many efficient secretaries who are leaving PHS this year. Knitting, reading, dancing, and traveling are the activities that keep her happy. She gets the most satisfaction out of "a job well done."

ALVIN BLACK

While he enjoys almost everything in life, Alvin is especially fond of raising racing pigeons. Strictly a sportsman, he went out for intramural football, basketball, and baseball.

GARRET BOEKEL

Garret is a Frank Buck, Johnnie Weismuller, and Robin Hood all wrapped in one, for he likes hunting, swimming, and archery. Extremely fond of vacations. Garret plans to be a farmer (where he'll never get a vacation).

ROBERT C. BISSETT

"Bachelor" picks toolmaking as his goal in life. All stuck-up girls please stay away; you're his pet peeve. Active in Swimming and Camera Clubs, he finds pleasure in sailing, resting, and eating.

SHIRLEY S. BLUME

Band, Swimming Club, Hi-Tri, Girls' Leaders Club, Typing Club, War Bonds and Stamps Committee, Senior Editor of Milestone, and many Victory Corps activities kept Shirley busy during her four years in PHS. Her plans for the future include studying at New Jersey College for Women.

SALEEM K. BOGHDAN

Judging from Sam's list of activities, football, baseball, and Football Club, it looks as if he is especially interested in sports. He was also a member of the Boys' Chorus.' Duck-hunting early in the morning is his idea of heaven.

ELIZABETH BOTTCHER

Betty is sure to make one sweet little nurse. She has been out for archery and was a member of the Badminton and Old Testament Clubs. No conceited people around Betty, please!

FRANCES ANN BRADSHAW

Fran is another future teacher who likes dancing and reading. She worked for the Milestone business staff, Library Council, and Hi-Tri. In sports, archery and badminton are favorites. She dislikes insincerity and fondly recalls fourth period over

BEVERLY ANN BOLEN

Bev has made many friends in the short time she has been in PHS. She enjoys sketching, and dancing, with the right person. Sketch Club, Dramatic Society, Girls' Leaders Club, and Sea Service of the Victory Corps were her activities.

LEONORA BOWSER

"Sweets'" activities included Basketball Club and Hockey Club. Dancing and collecting records in her spare time, she hopes to become either a nurse or a beautician. She'll always remember Mrs. Van Cleef's English class in her freshman

JUNE A. BRADY

Here's another one of our future secretaries. June went out for tennis and archery and was a homeroom treasurer. Though she dislikes conceited people, she really enjoys going to New York on Saturday nights.

CAROL BRONSTON

Here's our noted editor, who besides directing the Milestone, has been a member of the Student Council, Entree, Orchestra, A Cappella Choir, Dramatic Society, Senior Honorary Society and was Junior Class treasurer and SAT chairman.

LOUISA JEANNE BULLOCK

"Rain, rain, go away." Jeanne's pet hate is rainy weather. Especially fond of drawing, she was a member of the special art class and on the Milestone art staff. She plans to be an advertising artist in the future.

WILLIAM W. BRAY

It's Yale for "W.W." and chemical engineering afterwards. His activities included drum major, Senior Band, Milestone Business Manager, Student Council, Swing Band, Magic Club and prom committee. Playing clarinet and sax and listening to swing records are his hobbies.

MARIE BROWN

Here's another name to add to the list of future nurses. Marie enjoys going out with a bunch of girls, but conceited people annoy her. Hockey, knitting club, archery, and basketball took up a lot of her spare time at school.

CLARENCE CORNELIUS BUMPAS

"Hey now," says "Bo," who hates girls walking slowly down the hall. A future aviation mechanic, Bo was a member of the Student Patrol, Swimming Club, and Stamp Club. He enjoys fishing, stamps and reading.

BETTE L. BURKE

Being in a crowd is "Burkie's" idea of fun. Swimming, ice skating, and sampling food also come in that category. Nursing interests her as a prospect for the future.

RUTH C. BUZZARD

Buzzie, a member of the Senior Honorary Society, Victory Corps, and Hi-Tri, hopes to have a secretarial position after graduation. Also out for archery, she's interested in flying and ice-skating.

LEAH BURACK

Insincere people annoy "Lee," who wants to become a dental assistant. She liked that one day free from gym. Press Club, Office Machines Club, Entree and Milestone business staff were her activities.

JOHN E. BUY

Buy goes in for sailing and track in a big way and was out for track and cross country in PHS. He likes the time he spends at the shore best because he says, "I can do what I want to do." Marine engineering is his goal for the future.

ANNA MAE CALHOUN

"One, two, three, hup," "Whiskers" will shout when she gets back to the gym as a physical education instructor. In Student Council and active in hockey and basketball, she also enjoys knitting, dancing, and the movies.

THEODORE C. CAMPBELL, JR.

Football, Student Council, orchestra and Senior Honorary Society took up Ted's time when he wasn't playing tennis. He is a candidate for the Webb Institute of Naval Architecture. "Great guns!" He's ambitious

DALE PARKER CARLISLE

"Monk" was on the baseball and football teams and was sports editor of the Milestone. He enjoys sports of all kinds and social activities. He'll fondly remember the school in general but not those cut slips for classes he didn't cut!

PATRICIA CALLENDER

Patty spent her spare time in PHS by actively working in Student Council, War Stamps and Bonds Committee, and Hi-Tri. Among activities that she enjoys are summer and winter sports.

VIVIAN DOLORES CAMPOLATTANO

Gracing the Met at some later date will be wee "Vee." A Cappella and Motet Choirs are on her list of extracurricular activities. She was also a member of the Senior Honorary Society and Senior Executive Committee.

JEANETTE CARLOMAGNO

One more PHS girl has picked out nursing for her life's work. Drawing and dancing are Jeanette's favorite hobbies, and she went out for hockey two years while in school.

A. ELIZABETH CARTER

This was Betty's first year in PHS, coming in from Dunellen. Acting as homeroom secretary, she's going into nursing after graduation. "Uhuh!" Getting something done and done well certainly does give her satisfaction.

MARY CARTER

Hiking in old clothes is tops with "Monk"; doing homework is on the bottom. "Holy Cow!" exclaims this future stenographer when asked about her activities as she recalls membership in the Senior Honorary Society, Hi-Tri, and tennis

MABEL E. CAROLUS

"Ye Gads!" says May who despises people who brag. Badminton Club, Girls' Leaders Club and Advanced Typing Club occupied her time. Our prolonged 1942 Christmas vacation is a sweet memory

JULIA F. CARTER

Julie kept busy by indulging in her favorite pastime, reading novels. Her fondest memory was teaching a freshman gym class. She was a member of Girls' Leaders Club, and nursing is her ambition.

JOSEPH GREGORY CARTY

Greg, in his four years here, has been in Student Council, Hi-Y, Boys' Chorus, football, basketball, basketball, and Freshman Executive Committee. He has been Homeroom Chairman and president of the Senior Class. It's the business field for him.

GEORGIANA ESTELLE CASSETT

Georgie can't decide whether to become a nurse or a stenographer, but she will do either well. Her favorite hobby is swimming and she likes to say "solid!" She dislikes deceitful people.

MARIE S. CECERE

Marie was active in hockey, basketball and Library Council. Conceited people and those who think they know it all are not on good terms with Marie, who plans to be a secretary.

ANNE M. CASSERLY

It was a full slate for Nancy: Glee, Knitting, and Girls' Leaders Clubs; tennis, basketball, and badminton; Hi-Tri, Victory Corps, Usher Squad, and Milestone circulation staff. Winner of the badminton tourney, she won't soon forget that night football game.

ANN TERESA CAULFIELD

Besides her sports' activities, tennis, basketball, badminton, softball, G.A.A. president, Girls' Leaders Club, Ann found time to join the Usher Squad, Hi-Tri, Milestone, and Victory Corps. The crystal ball shows Ann as a nurse.

LOUISE M. CERRETTI

"Freckles" will be content with any kind of an office job as her future work. Singing, dancing, and skating took up most of her spare time. Her memories of PHS will linger with Mr. Strub's English class and Mrs. Strauss.

JOHN CHABOK

"Yonk's" fondest memory of high school is his senior year, but people that talked during study period annoyed him. He was baseball manager and a Student Council representative. He aims to be a machinist. His special interest? Sports.

IRENE ANN CHIMLESKI

"Misty's" fond of music. Aiming to be a secretary, she was in Student Council, out for basketball, and archery, and also Entree typist and Glee Club member. She won't forget her junior year for quite some time.

LEO CETUK

"Chick" hopes to get a job in the field of electricity after graduation. Activities like gardening, raising chickens and pigeons keep him interested.

THOMAS T. CHAPPELL, 3rd

Tom has been very interested in athletics, participating in track and football. He was a member of Student Council. Camping, fishing, baseball and stamps are his hobbies. After graduation, he plans to study engineering.

SALLIE R. CHURCHILL

Newspaper work is closest to Church's heart, judging from her list of activities which includes several editorships on the Entree and Milestone. She also participated in Girls' Leaders and Victory Corps activities, and belonged to Debate, Creative Writing, and Pan-American Clubs.

ALEX A. CIUFO

"Shadow" hopes to be a machinist. He disliked his P.A.D. class because there were too many girls. "They made too much noise." Last year's Christmas vacation is his fondest memory of High

WILLIAM W. CLARKSON, JR.

Classical music, both vocal and instrumental, is Bill's favorite hobby. A Library Council member and a War Stamp salesman while at PHS, he intends to take an office position or be an oratorio soloist after the war.

FIORE J. CIARFELLO

"Fury's" greatest enjoyment comes from sports. He was a member and cocaptain of our football team and also on the baseball team. His favorite hobby is fishing and his plans for the future include being either a machinist or a tool maker.

ARTHUR H. CLARK, JR.

An all time sports lover, Art showed his merit on our football and swimming teams. Having enjoyed all four years here, he's planning on entering the field of business administration later on.

GLORIA MARIANNE CLOER

"Jeepers!" says Glo who looks forward to Friday nights. Her fondest memory of high school was the time we beat North Plainfield. Archery, A Cappella choir, Victory Garden Club, Old Testament Club, Milestone, Entree and swimming sum up her activities.

ARTHUR F. CONK, JR.

Art, a future machinist, was in the Archery Club and out for intramural basketball. Among his other interests were photography and building plane and ship

ALICE C. COOK

Bing Crosby thrills "Cookie." She wants to go to teachers college. She hates to have to get up in the morning when it is cold. In PHS she has been a member of the Pep and Glee Clubs.

FRANK JOSEPH COMUNE

An all around sportsman, "Head" was on the varsity and jayvee football teams and says sports provide him with the most enjoyment. Study periods will long be remembered by him. He is going to study mechanical engineering.

A blare of trumpets!! A roll of drums! The March of Time presents 1954 in review!! This year marks outstanding achievements in the fields of dairy farming, coal mining, and tree surgery!!

We now take you back to that bleak day in January, when on a windswept ocean, the Good Ship "Lolly Pop," after all hope had been abandoned for her safety, sailed through all perils to anchor safely at Cedar Brook pond. The boat designed by that eminent naval architect, Ted Campbell, was commanded by the world renowned captain, Skipper Bob Tomson.

The same month the world was startled to learn of the birth of septuplets in the Plainfield Municipal Hospital. In charge was Dr. E. Gordon Glass, assisted by nurses Ann Caulfield, Madge Evans, and Jennie Frankowski. On hand to care for the harassed father was Dr. Vera Hooper, psychiatrist. Allen Sweet and Bill Hyland provided the pharmaceutical supplies. The infants were named after leading citizens of our country: Dick Mooney Jones, Carol Bronston Jones, Jack Shuster Jones, Betty Arthur Jones, Jane Lum Jones, Fulton Hines Jones, and Betty Wilks Jones. Bishop Corcoran officiated at the baptism.

Movie fans all over the country were held in suspense, awaiting the decisions of the Academy Award judges. All awards went to the production of "DON'T SHOVE, JUST PUSH," or "WILL SHE GET TO THE CAFETERIA BEFORE THE RUSH?" written by that Pulitzer prize-winning playwright, Sallie Churchill. Also receiving awards were the stars, Phoebe Hardingham and Norman Kantor. Best supporting actress award went to Anne Stewart.

March brought the annual Air Carnival held at Hadley Airport. Featured event was the race between the plane, Cardinal Tiger, designed by Walt Thielhart, and piloted by daring Charlie O'Neil, against Marv Davidson's The Plainfield Creeper, flown by aviatrix Doris Messler. A new world's speed record was achieved. Judges were those well-known aeronautical engineers, Einer Hansen and Walter Hammond.

Great men in the field of science, John Gee, John Hunting, and Bill Bray, combined their efforts to create that miracle of modern living—the Buttless Cigarette!!!

The tenth anniversary of the Plainfield Junior Nite Club brought forth a glitteringly arrayed crowd to applaud a gala revue, featuring Eddie Roeth and his original "beat me Daddy with a boogie beat" band, with Larry Gambino at the drums, Pete Pasquarello at the bass fiddle and Betty Patterson swinging out the blues. A sparkling floor show starred the rhythmic tap of Vera Krogh and the tinkling keys of Cecil Sharpe.

With the establishment this year of the International Federation for the Preservation of World Peace, also known as IFFTPOWP (pronounced ifftpowp) a closer understanding between the nations of the world was realized. This is due to the efforts of Betty Vail, Nobel Peace prize winner, David Jackson, professor of world economics, Estelle Sobel, authority on Latin America, and Andy Miller, traveler and adventurer. Foreign correspondents George Schropfer and Bob Okell covered the opening sessions.

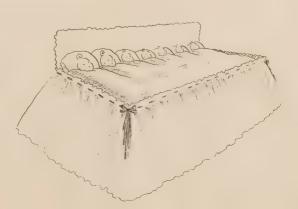

Thrills came fast and furious in the world of sports this year. Norm (Lefty) Rinehart pitching for the House of David surpassed all expectations by winning 39 games and losing one! The spotlight of football was centered on Eddie Coughlan and Fury Ciarfello, who coached undefeated, unstied, unscored upon teams to victory.

At Carnegie Hall Jean Wiederhold enthralled her audience by her brilliant performance at the piano. New names to appear on the Carnegie Hall Marquee were Bill Clarkson, oratorio soloist, and Louise Loizeaux, pianist, while Jane Schrampf and Nancy Flanders made their debut at the Met.

As a climax to a year of successful accomplishment, voters went to the polls to select Bob White as their leader for the next four years in the White House, succeeding Greg Carty.

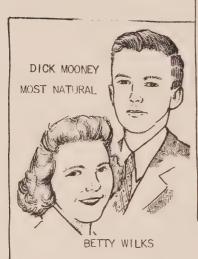

And so, as it comes to all years, the end came to 1954. TIME MARCHES ON!!!!

JUNIORS

The Junior Class of 1944 has come a long way since it first wandered up "Down" stairways back in 1941.

Starting its third year right, the class presented the annual Junior Play on November 12 and 13. The play, "The Very Light Brigade," was an entertaining comedy based on the humorous side of war on the homefront. Jean Aschenbach and Byron West will long be remembered for their delightful portrayals of the leading characters.

Juniors made themselves known in all kinds of student organizations. Harvey Rothberg worked as Student Council treasurer and Ellen Leavy as Student Council publicity chairman. On the athletic field other juniors made a name for themselves: Stan Madjeski, Chubby Bradley, and John Tierney in basketball; Armstead Robinson and Fred Dellaperute in football; and Jack Moody in track.

A social affair in the spring and the Junior-Senior Prom were the principal activities that the students worked on as a class.

Mrs. Eleanor Henderson, class adviser, loves to boast about her juniors consistently having as many people on the high honor rolls as the three other classes combined. The juniors love to boast about Mrs. Henderson and the fine job she has done.

Leading this enterprising class are Robert Neu, president; Sterling Cary, vice-president; Alice Kuhlthau, secretary; and Marvin Shrager, treasurer.

SOPHOMORES

G. Stevens, J. Ring.

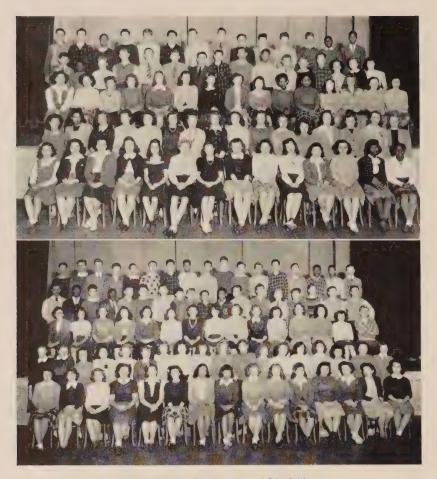

They're still underclassmen, technically speaking, but looking at the Class of 1946, no one can say that they've acted in any way that wouldn't be a credit to an upperclass.

At election time the class took on the serious business of selecting their leaders for the year. With a great deal of deliberation over the many candidates, the class came to the decision that Gerry Stevens should be president; Donald Allen, vice-president; Jo Anne Norman, secretary; and James Ring, treasurer.

Among the names that kept this class in the limelight were Mary Bowie, who placed in the Latin-American Association Contest and Sam Colantuono, Walt Peterson, Tony Gatti, and Oliver Hubbard, who made the varsity football squad.

Among the projects for which the class became known to the school was the selling of the megaphone pins and the decals.

FRESHMEN

Freshman Class Officers

Who said the freshmen weren't leaders? That's not true about the Class of 1947! Despite their newness in Plainfield High School, the frosh have been foremost in everything they've tried!

The class began by leading the whole school in the purchase of S.A.T.'s in September. Following up that success, a freshman homeroom led in the number of gifts given to the men at Camp Kilmer.

As the leaders of leaders, the class selected Lew Pratt as their president, with Jean Terril, vice president; Shirley Talbot, secretary; Edward Rosensweig, treasurer.

Other freshmen have become active members of the Entree, Student Council, and other school organizations.

CLASS WILL

To whom it may concern: We, the Class of 1944, depleted in manpower, rationed in sugar, and deprived of elevators, do hereby declare our last will and testament.

To the future seniors: Privileges(?)

To next year's juniors: Standing for the first (?) time at a real bar (at the Junior Night Club.)

To the high and mighty sophomores to be: Congratulations on having survived their freshman year. A ladder to get off their high horse.

To the new freshmen: No heckling from the sophomores, plus a shiny, new yo-yo, and our sympathy.

To the faculty: The privilege of going UP the DOWN stairways.

To Mrs. Texier: A cup of coffee to go with her sweetness.

To Miss Moodey: A new lasso to catch stragglers in the hall.

To Mr. Kindig: A bigger apron for serving at next year's senior supper.

To Mrs. Wotherspoon: A crop of students who will pass the fifteen minute tests the first time.

To Mr. Hubbard: A scooter in which to get around the building.

To Mr. Hauck: Double copy and translation.

To Mr. Hoagland: A quieter office and shorter hours.

To Miss Snyder: Priorities for black nylon stockings.

To the janitors: A new sweeper.

To the school: A telescope to see the menu from the end of the lunch line. Longer assemblies that go into third period. Sharp scissors to cut the red tape involved in getting passes. Fleece-lined gym suits. More of the faculty as trusting as Miss Whelan. And, above all, Peace in our time.

In Witness Whereof, this fifteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and forty-four, we hereunto attach our seal and fingerprints.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Council legislation came thick and fast during the past year. Highlights were the formation of a Junior Night Club, completion of two "Triple Threat" campaigns by the War Bond and Stamp Committee, and the adoption of a new constitution.

Early in September the officers, Robert White, president; Richard Mooney, vice-president; Elizabeth Wilks, secretary; and Harvey Rothberg, treasurer were itching to go. The council representatives were hardly elected when the council succeeded in obtaining a pennant for the high school field through the Board of Education.

A date in September to be remembered is the twenty-fourth. At that time Bob White asked that the powers of the Student Council be defined. Afraid of a rubber-stamp council, he suggested that a new constitution be formulated and adopted. Within a month the constitution was revised.

Early in October the S.A.T. Campaign was successfully completed. October 19 was a red letter day as it was then that the BAA was dissolved and the Council's Athletic Committee was substituted with Bob Lundstrom as its chairman.

In the middle of the year Mrs. E. Reppert left for Washington and Mrs. B. Texier assumed her duties as faculty adviser along with Mr. W. Kindig, Mr. W. Held and Mr. G. Smith.

The new year brought a successful S.A.T. band concert and several dances, but never to be forgotten was the opening of the Junior Night Club.

With this excellent record behind it the PHS Student Council moves on to the future with confidence!

Third row: B. Brand, S. Gordon, J. Corcoran, M. Riggin, J. Hogan, R. Schmeyer, and J. Gee.

"We are the Plainfield Victory Corps . . . " To the lively rhythm of its theme song, the Victory Corps surged ahead to greater achievements that will help bring the war to a speedy and victorious conclusion.

Although only two years old, the group carries out a tremendous amount of activity under four divisions: land, sea, air, and community service. In the Land, Sea, and Air Service Divisions, the boys are prepared for future military service.

The Sea Service is directed solely by student leaders who aid the members in studying maps, knots, codes, and naval terminology.

A course in pre-flight aeronautics, explained by movies and leaders from the junior and senior groups of the Air Service Division, was offered to any student who wanted to join that division.

Covering a multitude of activities was the Community Service Division. One group did clerical work for CDVO and allied organizations. Fortysix senior and junior girls worked on surgical dressings for the Red Cross. Greeting visiting servicemen was the duty of the receptionists. A scrapbook committee kept a permanent record of the PHS boys in service.

One of the vital activities of the Victory Corps was the work of the War Stamp and Bond Committee. The "Triple Threat," the "Treasure Hunt," the purchase of a training plane—all these were special drives sponsored by this group besides its regular job of selling bonds and stamps each week!

And thus the PHS Victory Corps marched on its way!

SENIOR HONORARY SOCIETY

Ever notice a small red, blue and silver pin that some of the students wear? That pin means membership in the Senior Honorary Society, one of the highest honors that seniors can attain.

The Senior Honorary Society was organized just a year ago in order to have a group of students who are recognized leaders to serve where needed at school activities. At the same time an appointment to this society would be a reward for pupils having an outstanding school record.

Under the able supervision of Mr. W. Held and Mrs. B. Texier, the fifteen boys and fifteen girls have acted as receptionists in the front hall, have given assistance in the halls and cafeteria during lunch hour, and have served as ushers at various school functions. A one-act play was presented in an assembly program in May.

This year's officers were Robert Lundstrom; president; Richard Mooney, vice-president; Flavia Anderson, secretary; and Theresa Horel, treasurer.

USHERS

You see them every assembly. They are the students who open the doors and lead your class to its proper place with a minimum of trouble. You know whom we mean—the Ushers.

The squad is a co-ed group of thirty seniors, with several substitutes, under the direction of Miss G. Moodey.

The new ushers, chosen from a list of applicants by the faculty, begin work at Commencement and the closing assembly of their junior year.

This group has a job many people envy; they te!l people where to go!

Fourth row: H. Hipp, M. Scelsa, R. Goldsmith, M. Cardie, B. Flammer, S. Drake, H. Guttridge, R. Hallock, E. Wynn, M. Hires, W. Clarkson, B. Jarrett.

One of the oldest organizations in the school, the club has a twofold purpose. First, its members, through programs, trips, and service, become familiar with the duties of library management and learn the use of materials housed there. Second, the members have an opportunity to serve the school by assisting in the library.

Under the able leadership of Mary Coyne, president; June Turner, vice-president; Marjorie Ring, secretary; and Eva Hall, treasurer, such projects as the Victory Book Campaign, National Book Week Celebration, and the Annual Faculty Book Tea were sponsored. Miss J. Miller is the adviser, assisted by Miss C. Moraller.

GREEK CLUB

Who said Greek is dead? There are thirty-three members of the Greek Club who are proving that it is very much alive. They are so interested that they come once a week for a full class period before school to learn this ancient language. Only juniors and seniors who have passed two years of Latin are permitted to enroll in the course, which is extracurricular and carries no credits.

The students are finding that the class is really valuable in increasing their power in the use of English and vocabulary. Mr. W. Held is the leader of the group.

They say you can't keep a good man down, and this must apply to Greek!

CHOIRS

Only a small group, but what music! The Motet Choir is a small club of selected upperclass members of the A Cappella Choir. These girls devote an extra period a week to their singing. Under the direction of Mrs. M. Searles, they usually appear at functions that desire a small group.

The house lights dim, Mrs. Mildred Searles raises her hand and — presto — heavenly music is presented to us by the A Cappella Choir! The A Cappella Choir has had a very busy year, with the girls receiving many invitations to sing for various community organizations. Their outside calendar included programs at the Netherwood-Maxson P.-T.A., the Monday Afternoon Club, the Old Guard, the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, the First Park Baptist Church, as well as six appearances at Camp Kilmer.

Lighter music was featured by the girls this year. "When Day is Done," "Blue Skies," and "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody" are just a few of the songs the group has added to its repertoire. Louise deVitalis and Marion Wilenski shared soloist honors, and Louise Loizeaux did an excellent job as accompanist.

A movie to be shown in 360! Call on Mr. C. Dunavan's Projection Club! These students, about twenty in number, operate all kinds of visual aid equipment for classroom use. They occasionally put on a show in the auditorium for the whole school.

Biggest project of the year for the club was the movie it presented after school one day to raise money. "Keep 'Em Flying' with Abbott and Costello was a hilarious success.

BOYS' CHORUS

Just singing for fun—that's the purpose of the newly organized Boys' Glee Club. Not intended to meet the rigid requirements of voice testing and selecting trained voices, it is open to anyone wishing to sing.

The boys meet once a week under the direction of Mr. C. Andrews and sing folk and light classical music.

BAND

On the football field, during assembly programs, on the stage while giving a concert, the PHS Band wins cheers for its stirring music.

With approximately sixty-five members and instrumentation complete for all types of concert work, the band is really a full symphonic organization. The members rehearse daily, practicing on a large variety of music.

"Keep busy" seems to have been the motto for the Band this year. Not only did it play for the home football games, at numerous assembly programs, give an S.A.T. concert and a Band Uniform Fund Concert, it also was featured at many functions of community interest — rallies, parades, concerts.

In full dress uniform, with the Twirlers in front, the PHS band is one of the most colorful groups in school life.

SWING BAND

"By" West plays soft and sweet on his trumpet, Dave Flammer beats out the rhythm on his drum— The PHS Swing Band is giving its best for an assembly program!

The Swing Band is a complete dance band, organized not only to provide enjoyment for members and the rest of the school, but also to train instrumentalists in the modern style of playing popular music.

The final chord—and the audience bursts into applause! The PHS orchestra has just played the last number in its public concert and made another great success.

The orchestra has a very definite purpose: to train instrumental players to enjoy orchestra music and to teach them to appreciate classical music.

The orchestra participated in many assembly programs in addition to the concert.

One musical unit that was made up from members of the Orchestra was called the String Vibraharp Ensemble. It consisted of five violins, a violincello, a piano, and a vibraharp. Besides assisting the orchestra at its concert and assembly programs, this group has played frequently for outside organizations.

DRAMA CLUBS

Miss R. LeFevre's Dramatic Society has had a very busy year.

Several junior members took part in the Junior Play—a great success! "The Heavens' Declare," presented as a Christmas play, brought the solemn beauty of the season to all who saw it. Members of the club and the drama class helped in giving the entertaining fantasy, "For Heaven's Sake," on behalf of the Fourth War Loan Drive.

Every Monday a group of freshman girls met to discuss plays, current on Broadway, and planned to attend three before the end of the year.

In addition to studying the theater, the club members aimed to improve their appearance and learn the art of make-up and good grooming.

Mrs. H. Strauss was their adviser.

A model set construction—that's the product of the work of this Drama Club! Guided by Mrs. M. Westpfahl, the freshman group has enjoyed an interesting and instructive season.

Besides discussing plays, the art of make-up was a favorite topic at club meetings and the glamour of the stage was brought close to home.

Officers of the club were Barbara Schott, president; Robin Shrager, vice-president; Gertrude Schiller, secretary; and Anne Jordan, treasurer.

Presented on March 16, 17, and 18, the senior class production of "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" was a huge success, a sellout. This comedy-fantasy starred Walter Thielhart as Joe Pendleton, who had lost his body before he was dead through the error of the messenger from heaven, enacted by Charles Leggett. Bob Lundstrom played the title role of Mr. Jordan.

Bob White and Ruth Townsend headed the supporting cast as the lovers and murderers around which the plot evolved. The remainder of the sup-porting cast included Eloise Schlichting, Seymour Sack, Jane Davis, Doris Pfaff, Anne Stewart, Betty Erny, Frank Fosbre, Randolph Stelle, Ralph Hallock, Robert Okell, Robert Lippman, Irwin Mirkin, Marvin Davidson, and Dale Carlisle.

Also Gene Andy, Sallie Churchill, John Gee, Dick Mooney, Mary Sutton, John Smonig, Norman Kantor, Eleanor Moore, Beverly Bolen, Marjorie Prim, and Joan Zehfuss.

TRI-HI-Y

Tri-Hi-Y is the latest addition to the Y.M.C.A. clubs for high school youth. Originating out of a discussion meeting of eight high school boys and girls on October 19, 1943, the club provided weekly activities of a social, educational and religious nature. Business meetings were held on the first Wednesday of the month while other Wednesdays found the "gang" at the "Y" for dancing, movies, discussions meetings and speakers.

Tri-Hi-Y, the first Co-ed High School group to be formed in the Y.M.C.A., puts its services at the disposal of the school and the community. Its platform is Cooperation, Tolerance, Growth and Vision. Good scholastic standing is a prerequisite to becoming a member.

Officers of Tri-Hi-Y are president, Marguerite Russo; vice-president, Garret Keating; secretary, Doris Gavett; treasurer, Edward Lieb; and chaplain, Donald Lilley.

Membership in Tri-Hi-Y is open to any High School boy or girl who accepts the club purpose and platform.

LEADERS' CLUB

In the fourteen years since its organization, the Junior Leaders' Club has accepted one hundred ninety-nine members, of whom over two-thirds are serving their country.

The basis for all club work is the development of spirit, mind and body. Spiritual instruction is a weekly half-hour course on a chosen book of the Bible. The boys' minds are developed by lectures given by Dr. W. Day and Mr. H. Banta. Twice weekly the boys strive to develop their bodies through heavy gymnastics and calisthenics.

Not the least bit one-sided, the Leaders' Club have a full social calendar consisting of dances, gymnastic exhibitions, and banquets. Awards are given to the most outstanding members at the end of each season.

Tuesday nights find the Hi-Y boys gathered together at their weekly meetings. Maybe they're listening to a guest speaker, or watching movies, but whatever it is, the Hi-Y boys are having fun!

Some of the special programs this year were a spaghetti dinner, a bicycle trip, the annual spring dance, and an exciting basketball game with the Moorland Hi-Y.

In a more serious vein is the purpose of the club—to promote and encourage activities between the "Y" and the High School.

Dances! Skating parties! Dramatic presentations! Those are some of the outward results of the Moorland Hi-Y. But the group has a more important purpose than just pleasure. It seeks to train each boy for the position he will take in the future world, and to accomplish this objective, there are speakers and various conventions the boys may attend.

The Hi-Y has come a long way since the first meeting in 1942.

HI-TRI

To most PHS girls, Friday night from 7:15 to 8:15 means a time to get together at the Y.W.C.A. for a good time. The meeting is opened by the singing of "The Lord is in His Holy Temple." After the usual business, the meeting is turned over to a guest speaker or to a program planned for that evening.

Good companionship is the spirit that pervades the meetings and this spirit has been increased greatly this year by the series of "Open Houses."

Hi-Tri teaches the girls to face life squarely and to find and give the best, a purpose of which the importance is ever growing.

EAST FIFTH STREET HI-TRI

This Hi-Tri group has the distinction of being the original Hi-Tri group organized at the branch Y.W.C.A. For four years now the girls have worked and played together for the benefit of all.

They have enjoyed many and varied activities during their club life at the "Y." Some of them have been co-ed discussions, "game nights" and parties. Their annual formal is the highlight of each season. The girls can honestly say, "A good time was had by all."

BIOLOGY

Perhaps this year the Biology Club has been training future Pasteurs or great ornithologists!

The club is divided into two groups: the Microscope Club under the supervision of Miss G. Moodey and Mr. H. Hubbard and the Bird Club under Miss Moodey's direction.

Microscope Club members have examined living culture and prepared slides, while the Bird Club has learned to identify wild birds and their habits.

Officers of the club are John Nelson, president; and Harvey Rothberg, secretary.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

"Is Communism really working?" "What should the U.S.A.'s foreign policy be?" These are just a few of the problems discussed by Miss G. Cooley's International Relations Club.

Composed of upperclassmen, the group has included in its activities discussion of timely topics and featured guest speakers. The members also had the opportunity to attend the student discussions of the New York Foreign Policy Association.

DEBATE CLUB

Hear Ye, Hear Ye, the Town Hall of PHS is now in session! It's the Debate Club, of course, and the members are having one of their weekly meetings under the direction of Miss B. Fisher.

Their purpose is an important one: to learn as speakers to express their thoughts clearly and to improve their reasoning power.

Third row (standing): G. Greenblatt, L. Burack, R. Buzzard, G. Glass, J. Barthlau, B. Bray, B. Arthur, J. Shallow, B. Vail, M. Perree.

In the Publications' Office, amid much bustle and confusion, the 1944 Milestone started on its way.

Carol Bronston, the editor-in-chief, was surrounded by her editors. There were shouted orders, the clatter of typewriters, and the rattling of papers.

Deadlines and contracts, proofs and copy, letters and notes—all these went into the making of the Milestone.

Editors were: senior editor, Shirley Blume; club editors, Jane Lum and Jean Wendell; sports editor, Dale Carlisle; girls' sports editor, Ann Runyon; photograph editor, George Deats; art editor, Ruth Strom; editorial board, Shirley Feldman, Dorothy Howell, Norman Kantor, and Patty Krohn.

Meanwhile, down in Mrs. Beatrice Texier's office, Bill Bray and the business staff kept-up a remarkable pace. A new sales record—over 700 books sold, and a full advertising section show how capably they worked!

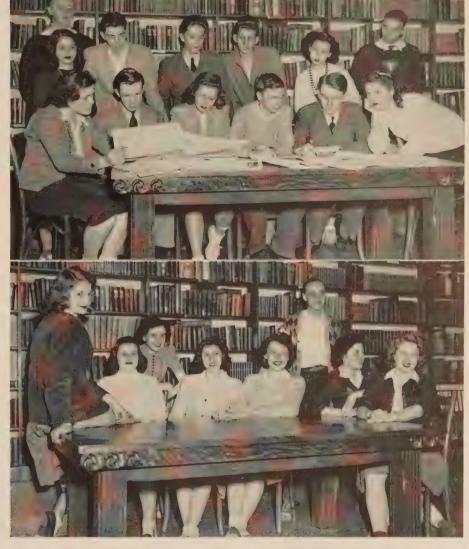

With the guidance of Mr. John Hoagland, editorial adviser, and Mrs. Beatrice Texier, business adviser, the staff was carried through an unforgettable year of work—and fun!

Extra! Extra! Entree comes through with flying colors despite war hardships!

Carrying out its two-fold purpose of keeping the school informed and aiding the war effort, the staff has promoted the sale of War Stamps and Bonds, backed Victory Corps campaigns, and printed editorials on the job of winning the war.

During the first semester, Bob Okell held the position of editor-in-chief; Bud Rothschild looked after the front page as managing editor; Shifra Levy, feature editor, took care of page two; and George Schropfer was in command of the sporting section. Joe Corcoran was literary editor, and Sallie Churchill kept tabs on the alumni and servicemen in her capacity as alumni and service editor. Ilona Kaufman, exchange editor, and Jack Hirsch, art editor, made up the remainder of the staff.

In the second semester, Bud Rothschild took over the editor-in-chief position, and Stanley Skolnik became managing editor. Shifra Levy and George Schropfer remained in their previous positions as feature and sports editors respectively. Bob Okell became literary editor, Sallie Churchill remained alumni and service editor, and Jack Hirsch, art editor. A new member, Dot Hallad, took over the exchange editorship. The new position of copy editor was Joe Corcoran's job.

Doing their job in a very business-like fashion were the advertising staff, headed by Esther Miller and guided by Mr. A. H. Otto, and the circulation staff under Miss E. Johnstone. Quietly, competently, they made sure the Entree reached the students regularly with a full complement of ads.

SMALL CLUBS

Magic Club and Office Machines Club.

Not so big in size, but very important in the number of their activities are the many small organizations in PHS.

Presto-chango and a rabbit is pulled out of the hat! Elementary, my dear Watson—or so the Magic Club says. Limited to six members, the club has given many public performances.

The workings of the more complicated office machines are as "easy as pie" to the members of Mr. Walter Clement's Office Machines Club. Limited in membership, the students learn to operate such machines as the dictaphone and comptometer.

Under the supervision of Mr. Eric Nelson is the Stage Crew. This group is in charge of stage equipment and the setting up of props for any stage show. Their fame lies in their willingness to assist anyone.

Did you lose something? The Lost and Found Club is at your service! It has proved invaluable in helping students recover lost articles.

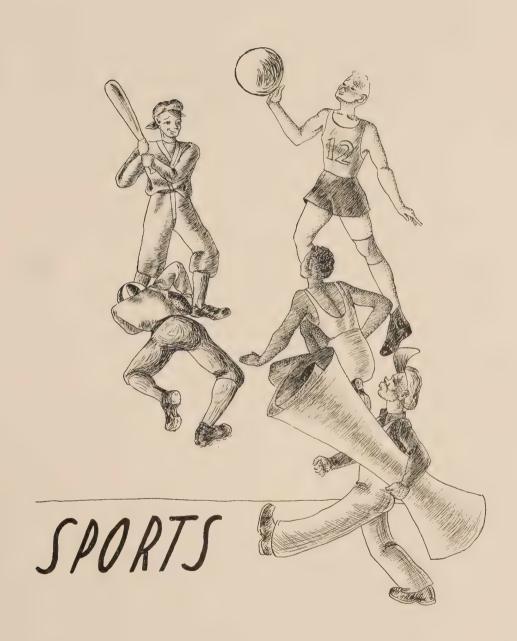

The film shortage failed to daunt the members of the Camera Club. With Mr. Kenneth Ball's direction the club has had an interesting and educational year.

Religious interest is not confined to church, the members of the Old Testament Club are proving. Guided by Miss E. Hageman, the club has heard many guest speakers and has participated in several programs.

SPORTS AT WAR

As in all other fields and organizations, sports, too, are being affected by the war. Plainfield High School's sporting program is no different from the rest; it, too, is being influenced and changed greatly by this war.

Since last year soccer has been withdrawn from the program, and track meets, basebal, basketball, and football games have all been curtailed all due to the same excuse "there's a war on." In addition to these curtailments, practically all extracurricular activities have been abolished because of the coal shortage.

Junior Commandos would not have to be training so vigorously, if it were not felt that the boys needed some preparations before entering our Armed Forces.

Many of PHS's sport stars have left the playing fields of Plainfield to fight on the battle fields of our enemies. Boys like Tex Saunders, Nunzio Loggia, Sam Colantouno, and Bob Miller were playing for the home team last fall, but are not here for graduation; they're off playing a grimmer game with a different type foe.

Also affected by the war was our coaching staff with the loss of Coach Jack Liddy to the Navy. Many of the boys whom Coach Abe Smith had to work with this year had seen a year of action with Mr. Liddy. PHS also lost the services of Coach Everett Pearcy who left to train Naval Aviation Cadets. Our tennis coach, Mr. William Sette, coached many PHS racket-eers to victory. He is now in the army.

Many more boys have left these hallowed halls and still many more will until this job is over. It's things like football, basketball, tennis, track, baseball and all the others that make this America the land of sportsmen. That's what they are fighting for, and until they come back again, PHS will keep alive for them some other memories that mean so much.

Won two; lost four; tied three.

SENIOR VETERANS BEFORE GAME TIME Accommodating Ed Coughlan by helping him with his jersey is another senior, Fiore Ciarfello. Watching is Nunzio Loggia on the bench.

The team jogs on the field. The crowd in the stands yells wildly for its Cardinal team. The huge white numbers show up vividly on the bright new red jerseys our players are wearing. The fans look through their programs, hoping to identify their favorite players.

This is the first game of the season. Our new coach from Mountain Lakes, Mr. Abe Smith, walks nervously about the bench as the starting eleven warms up. The St. Peter's team is now on the field ready for action. The cheerleaders start off with the "team" yell as the big red teams take their positions. The whistle—a hush—and there goes the kickoff to PHS.

Well, you know the rest of this story. The Crimson Tide outplayed the St. Peter's boys to the tune of 26 to 0. Throughout the season our field general Ed Coughlan was outstanding in leading his gang smartly, and with the hard bucking backs John O'Reilly and Sam Colantouno, the shifty hips of Walt Peterson, Tony Gatti and Armstead (Brains) Robinson, we managed to gain some ground.

Our captain and also the boy our opponents had to look out for was Fred Dellaperute at left tackle. Still there were more. You remember the surprising freshman at left guard, William Antini, and the three other boys sharing right guard positions, Nathaniel Calhoun, Ben Brighton and late in the season Bob Miller. Big Frank Commune filled in the other tackle position. Our fast-moving pass snatchers were Harry (Tex) Saunders and Everett Lattimore. Definitely not to be forgotten is Fiore (Fury) Ciarfello at center who held the honor of being co-captain.

We kept playing every Saturday afternoon and managed to keep going with our "T" formation perfected by coaches Smith and Duranleau. We drew a tie with Bound Brook and fought the favored Hackettstown team to another tie. We also lost a few. We won't forget Bob Miller's performance in the West Orange mud. That was a tough game in any man's language. We dropped it by one touchdown, 6-0.

One time during the year we tried a bit of single wing. It wasn't too successful but gained us some pay dirt.

To sum it up, we had an average season. We hit some tough breaks. Our boys played good, clean, honest ball. Two of our boys were picked for all-state: Fred Dellaperute, tackle for second team, and Tex Saunders, honorable mention, both in the class four group, although PHS was classified as a group three school.

Our boys also picked up a few more honors at the county individual championships. In the 100 yard dash in full uniform Walter Peterson set a new record of 11.5 seconds. Oliver Hubbard was a close second. In the punt for distance PHS boys took second and third place honors. They were John O'Reilly with 51 yards and Tom Chappell with 49 yards. Another first was knocked off by Zigmund Gabruk with a place kick field goal of 25 yards.

We had a good bunch and a fine coach, and we came out with an average season and some unusual honors. We scored 78 points and had 70 scored against us. We won two, lost four, and tied three in a nine game season. This wasn't bad for a team composed of a majority of underclassmen. As we leave, we can see still better teams in the future for dear old PHS.

NICE GOING, BOYS!

Our All-State Players: Harry (Tex) Saunders and Fred Dellaperute.

Tex Saunders was a senior when he first tried out for the Card football team. He worked hard in training before our season opened, and when the first game with St. Peter's started, Tex was out there at right end. He played well all season sparking the boys along and also received honorable mention in the All-State Poll.

Tex was on the varsity basketball squad for the first two games of the season. He left PHS for his boot training in the United States Navy the middle of this year.

Fred, only a junior this year, was our outstanding lineman. He was the captain and mainstay of the team. Fred has seen three years of PHS football to date. Next season he will be a Senior and we may expect even more from him. This year Fred was elected second team tackle in the all-state poll for group four schools.

BASKETBALL

Although the season record of nine wins and eleven setbacks is far from spectacular, the Cardinal courtsters did succeed in keeping intact Coach Bill Brann's record of never having lost a City Championship to North Plainfield.

The Brannmen scored a clean sweep in copping the Crown, defeating the Canucks in two straight games by scores of 41-38 and 24-19 respectively. The Big Red also competed in the Union County Tournament, but was unfortunately eliminated in the semi-finals by Regional.

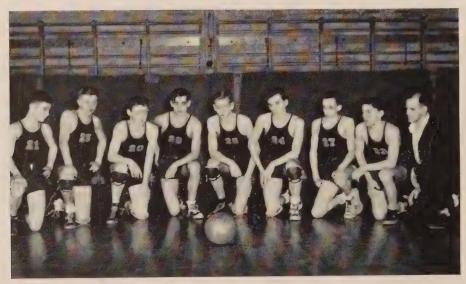

Plainfield operated, for most of the season, an "Ironman" quintet that used only one substitute a game. Jack Moody, playing the bucket position at center, Chubby Bradley and Allen Sweet holding down the forward posts; and Stan Madejski and John Tierney at guard, formed the starting, and usually the finishing, five.

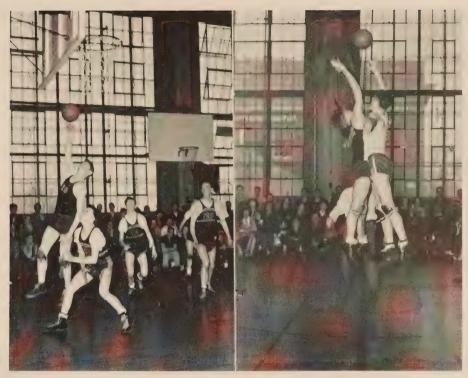

Madjeski was the spearhead of the scoring attack, leading the season point parade with 179 markers in 17 games. Illustrating the balance of power, the other four regulars all hit either close to or over the 100 mark in season points.

With Allen Sweet and Norman Kantor the only seniors, the up and coming junior varsity men, led by the experienced Tierney, Madjeski and Bradley, should form the nucleus of a great court squad next year.

SWIMMING

Operating under war-time conditions the Cardinal Swimming team, nevertheless, had a highly successful season: five wins, three losses, and a very close third place in the State Interscholastic Meet. Although several mermen are seniors there still remains a good nucleus for next year's team.

Highlight of the swimming season was the unexpected victory of Coach Liske's boys over previously undefeated Columbia High School by a score the exact opposite of last year's, 38-28. The Gems took the return meeting in their pool by a 34-32 score. This and the two meets with Trenton were the only defeats in an otherwise perfect season.

Unfortunately for Plainfield the Union County Interscholastics were not held because of lack of entries. However, the New Jersey State Interscholastic Swimming Championships, after a one year lapse, were again held. The 200-yard relay team of Harry Heidelberg, Craig Kuentz, Charley Nagengast, and Art Clark won the State Championship in the time of 1:47.0. Trenton with 58 points was a decided first; Columbia was second with 431/2 points, followed by Plainfield with 40 points.

PHS can be proud of its swimming team.

BASEBALL

PROBABLE STARTERS FOR THE SEASON

Insert: Coach Duranleau pointing out some of the rudiments of pitching to hurlers Norman Rinehart and Tom Clendenin.

As is the case with every sport, baseball faced its most difficult season in the third year of World War II. Endowed with an unusual wealth of player talent, Coach Duranleau's main problem appeared to be one of distribution. The team listed four returning lettermen and several players with semi-varsity experience.

The pitching staff was led by Norm Rinehart. Also seeing much service was pitcher Tom Clendenin. Rounding out the staff were Earl Woodruff and Clem Santy.

The fight for the catcher's spot was an interesting affair with Al Tumolo, Charles Nagengast and Greg Carty being the chief contenders. The infield presented a pleasant picture. Returning from last year's team were Bill Minarck at short and Sonny Madjeski holding down second. Out for the position at the keystone sack was Eddie Coughlan. The third base tag was filled by Fiore Ciarfello and Tom Dellaventura. In the outfield the only returning man was Bob Lippman. Candidates for the positions were John Tierney, John O'Reilly and Bill French.

PHS played a schedule this year that gave evidence of much competition, but fortified with plenty of talent and a determined coach, it did its best to produce a respectable record.

TENNIS

The prospects of a tennis team for this year looked hazy. War time conditions were the main obstacles in the path of an organized tennis team. The second factor was the loss of Coach William Sette who had coached tennis in PHS for many years, and who was drafted into the Army last summer.

Through the efforts of Mr. Stine we were able to have a team. With three varsity lettermen from last year, the outlook was not too bad. Ted Campbell and Norman Kantor, seniors, and Bill Walker, a junior, had all seen a year or more of varsity play.

Under their new coach, Mr. Arthur E. Smith, also JV football coach, the team went through a full season.

Also on last year's squad were George Deats and Waldo Kennedy, who showed up well in practice last season.

CHEERLEADERS

"Have you got it? Hip! Hip!" That's been an oft heard cry around PHS since the Cheerleaders were especially active this year. They gave over three hundred hours of service to the school.

Under the skillful direction of Miss Alice Ariel the team worked hard and faithfully to perfect a swell set of cheers. They cheered at all football, basketball games and award assemblies. Their presence lent color and enthusiasm to all the events in which they participated.

It's "farewell" to four senior members, Dippy deVitalis, Ruth Townsend, Betty Arthur, and Joan Saunders. As for the rest of the team, we hope to see you all again next year.

Coach Harold Bruguiere and Athletic Director Hub Stine are to be congratulated as Plainfield High's Track Team entered its third war time year, and as usual there was a full season of competition. The schedule offered a real test to a team that had lost only five dual meets in the past five years. Its roster of stars had been greatly depleted by losses to the armed forces, but the athletes remaining promised to maintain their enviable record.

Leading the parade was tall Jack Moody, National High Jump Champion. Jack established PHS history this winter when he took first place in the National Championships at Madison Square Garden, with a leap of six feet two inches. Only a junior, Jack also excells in the broad jump and is expected to be a consistent point winner this Spring.

Returning from last year was Captain Marvin Davidson. Marv is an outstanding quarter miler and the school's best in the broad jump, and if the occasion demands he can deliver in the high and low hurdles too. He has been a constantly important factor to the team. In the sprints we had dashmen, Johnny Nelson, Oliver Hubbard and Walter Peterson. Noticeably missing from this category was Dewitt Willis, a consistent winner in the short distances last season, who answered the call to the colors. In the hurdles Ev Lattimore and Luther Hammond offered much and in addition many up and coming underclassmen made a bid for prominence in the sprints.

The mile and half mile presented a great problem. Seymour Sack was the only returning letterman in the mile, but he bolstered the team quite a bit with his dependable running. Also support in the middle distances came from experienced men such as Louis Rothberg, Bob Vanderbeek and Brad Baker. The loss to the Navy of Em Mitchell and Bruce Dickerson left the half mile spot wide open for a good runner.

In the field events a prominent figure was Jim Keating. Second place in the pole vault in last year's state meet is plenty of indication of what was expected from him this year. His best jump last year was eleven feet six inches, but he aimed higher this season. Pokey Jacobs also showed some promise in the pole vault. The outstanding figures in the shot put were big Fred Dellaperute and Craig Kuentz. Both gave evidence of big improvements over last year's performances. In the discus and javelin there were many who expected to enter competition. Among them were Jim Hogan, Dick Thickstun, Dick Rothfuss, and Wayne Jensen.

There were also many others in every category who deserve mention here if space would only permit, but unfortunately we are limited to the above few. The draw of the Service from this year's track team was obviously great. Among the stars that were sorely missed were Dick James, Jack Shuster, Alfonse Johnson, Sammy Shields, and Joe Giddings. However, the fellows still here tried to carry on the tradition of PHS trackmen.

GIRLS' SPORTS

THE FOUNDATION OF GIRLS' SPORTS IN PHS

Behind all the girls' sports is the Girls' Athletic Association. This year's G.A.A. Board was composed of Ann Runyon, president; Nancy Casserly, secretary; Joyce Lock, treasurer; Helen Guttridge, senior representative; Janet Penny, junior repesentative; Mary Kay Schlichting, sophomore representative; and Helen Cramer, freshman representative. The organization is under the supervision of Miss Marlon Snyder.

According to the authorities, the G.A.A. Board this year proved itself to be the best PHS has had in a long time. The duties of the Board are to keep all sports running smoothly and to solve any problems which may arise in connection with the sports.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION BOARD

Standing: H. Guttridge, M. K. Schlichting, J. Penny. Absent: H. Cramer.

LEADERS' CLUB

First row (left to right) E. Snyder, G. Dunn, E. Croat, A. Iarkowski, J. Lock, B. Bolen, L. Baxter, and D. Gruneisen.

Second row: E. Davis, M. Ring, A. Caulfield, N. Casserly, I. Kaufman, G. Gage, R. Callahan, and V. Krogh. Third row: J. Turner, P. Hardingham, E. Mc-Lean, D. Howell, S. Feldman, S. Blume, and M. A. Ludwig.

Fourth row: D. Davis, A. Kuhlthau, E. Miller, C. Andy, C. Hahn, S. Churchill, M. Wilson, and F. Popovitch.

LEADERS IN ACTION . . . .

The Girls' Leaders' Club, under the supervision of Miss Marion Snyder, has done an extraordinary job of training the gym classes this year. Only juniors and seniors are eligible to train as Leaders. The girls learn the various rules of games, dance steps, and exercises for fundamentals and in turn teach what they have learned in the gym classes.

HOCKEY

First row: left to right: A. Tucker, E. Toresco, M. DelPapa, Captain A. Runyon, M. Brown, M. Dilley, D. Venable.

Second row: P. Hardingahm, D. Messler, F. Taber, and J. Carlomango.

Second row: H. Guttridge, D. Messler, and J. Shallow

Absent: G. Gage.

'GROUND STICKS'

Is hockey exciting? Just take a trip over to the PHS field and watch those girls fight it out. In the past two years, under the captaincy of Ann Runyon, the seniors have won every game they have played. This year the girls were under the expert instruction of Miss Marion Newson.

'MORE LUCKY BASKETS'

If you would really like to see a good basketball game, stop in at the girls' gym either Tuesday afternoon or some Friday during assembly period. The captains are Janet Penny, junior; and Joyce Lock, senior. The teams are nearly experts on guarding and shooting, and each game furnishes plenty of fun.

'WATCH THAT BIRD FLY'

Junior and senior girls are the only ones eligible to join the very popular Badminton Club, which meets every Monday afternoon and Friday assembly period. Senior captain is Nancy Casserly. The girls learn the fundamental rules and then strive to play as perfect a game as possible. While it may not be perfect, it is fun!

SWIMMING

TENNIS

First row: left to right: M. Evans, A. Runyon, Captain A. Caulfield, and N. Casserly.

Second row: J. Shallow, D. Messler, and L. Baxter.

SOFTBALL

Seated: left to right: J. Shallow, M. Copeland, M. Evans, A. Runyon, N. Casserly, A. Caulfield, and J. Lock.

Standing: H. Guttridge, D. Messler, P. Hardingham, G. Gage, and L. deVitalis.

'AH! SOME MERMAIDS'

Swimming is always such fun! Thursday afternoons, if you happened to hear any shrill shouts come from the direction of the swimming pool, it was only cheers for the victorious Senior Squad as it again took the honors. Helen Guttridge was the proud senior captain.

'YOUR SERVE'

We win! That's a familiar saying for the girls on the senior tennis team. With Ann Caulfield as captain, the seniors really went to town on the courts this spring. May the underclassmen keep up with the record which is left behind by the seniors.

'BATTER UP!'

"Who's that sliding into home base?" Just another one of those lucky gals from the class of forty-four. We realize that we did monopolize the winning corner of the sports this past year, but you underclassmen will miss us and our stiff competition as soon as we become members of the alumnae.
